HydrationNation

Jul 2023 - Aug 2023 (2 months)

Commercial Order.

In my previous role, I undertook the comprehensive development of a website from inception, integrating a PostgreSQL database, and employing Next.js with TypeScript and NodeMailer. The website's primary objective was to facilitate appointment booking while enabling seamless communication with the pharmaceutical company through email interactions. Additionally, I spearheaded the creation of a CRM system tailored to their needs. Designed and implemented an intuitive admin panel, affording efficient website and product management capabilities.

Stack: TypeScript, JavaScript, Next.js + React.js, NextAuth, NodeMailer, ChartJS

Frontend Developer

AlifTech UZB

Jun 2021 - Nov 2022 (1 year 6 months)

I was entrusted with the creation of pixel-perfect websites utilizing React.js, ensuring meticulous attention to detail in design and user interface. Collaborating seamlessly with PHP as a backend system, I orchestrated the harmonious integration of APIs, facilitating smooth data flow and enhancing overall functionality.

Stack: React.js, JavaScript, PHP, APIs, HTML + CSS

Full Stack Engineer

QuizYourFriends

Jun 2019 - Jul 2019 (2 months)

Commercial Order.

In a personal project, I conceptualized and developed a website that empowers users to take a quiz and share a link, evaluating how well their friends know them by matching answers. Leveraging PHP and PostgreSQL, I established secure data management, while JavaScript fueled an interactive frontend. The project featured an admin panel for content control and quiz administration
